

I would like to encourage you to not implement procedures that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I agree with those who say that they receive less unwanted calls at home after signing up for this protection.